PROGRAM

Special treat today – the county 4-H Public Speaking Contest winners joined us! Nicole Groezinger brought Jr. Division three winners with her – Beau Botterman, Bria Botterman (yes, they're siblings), and Danica Ward. 9-yr old Bria led off with an Original Work, entitled "My Own Gentle Giant" about St. Bernard dogs in general, and her own St Bernard. Next was brother Beau's Illustrated Speech, "A Walk With Disney." Beau give a brief history of Walt Disney and his theme parks. His presentation included pictures of him and his grandmother, and him and Chewbacca, among others. Finally we had Danica's Oral Interpretation of Inkheart, a 2003 young adult fantasy novel by Cornelia Funke.

Quote for the Day

"Wise men speak because they have something to say; fools because they have to say something."

- Plato

Heard around the tables: Being Mayor keeps you busy. And being Ass't Treasurer makes you crabby. And Jim B. was either witty or witless, depending on your source.
