ANNOUNCEMENTS, EVENTS

and OPPORTUNITIES

Check your info for the Yearbook. Sue is in charge, so let her know of any changes.

Ken & Colleen showed us one of the new Meals on Wheels carriers we purchased with Amy's memorial inscription on them.

Tim Dunlop, in a follow up to the Annie Glidden North program, urged us to make a difference individually by patronizing the Fanatico restaurant as well as Burritoville. It is a simple way to support that area of town immediately.

Sycamore Prayer Breakfast, Beryl congratulated Jerry Smith on the good work getting us organized for the event. We had 12 in attendance, second only to the Sycamore club!

Feed My Starving Children. Nov 9, 10 (F, S) from 3-5 pm. Mike has raffle tickets. $20 apiece. Please contact Jerry W with any questions. Friday is filled but Saturday still has some openings.

Jerry Wahlstrom conducted the annual attendance recognition ceremony. Mary McGinn and Dawn Littlefield stood out for their first years by having +100% attendance! Congratulations! Also Herb and Gordy were there for recognition of their 49 years!

Colleen was signing up volunteers to bring food items for the Thanksgiving Baskets.

Sue reported on the Library Book Sale – it made $4,600 !!!

PoP Box
No poop to PoP today.

★ ★ ★ ★ PROGRAM ★ ★ ★ ★

Today was committee day, and thus no program. Though Ken did give us a budget talk for the coming year, to be discussed at next week's board meeting. Needless to say, I didn't write it all down. For those interested please call Ken or come to the board meeting.
