★★★★ PROGRAM ★★★★★

The good folks from Tangled Roots Brewery were to join us today. In the meantime, Bills F & M updated on Beanie doings. Route marking will happen on the Friday before, but setup will be on Saturday. The event itself will be the 3rd Sunday in July (my birthday – ed.) The plan is to go back to 4 routes after downsizing to 3 last year. Looks like we'll be able to use the inside of the high school this year, unless COVID rears its ugly head again. Sponsorships are coming in (~$2800), running a little behind last year, but they're still coming in.

Defining Statement

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world, one child and one community at a time.

Flag Salute

As our flag signifies purity, valor, and justice, may we as true Kiwanians exemplify these virtues as we serve the children of the world.

And now for the main event! On with the show!

Amy Anderson, GM of Keg & Kernel (on the corner of 1st & Lincoln). K & K is a subsidiary of Tangled Roots Brewery, whose flagship restaurant is in Ottawa, IL. K & K is one of 3 restaurants TRB opened last year, and will open another in Lasalle-Peru in the near future, and operate concessions on Navy Pier and at the Kane County Cougars games. K & K is looking to expand their current 122 seat capacity if they can get the space next door. TRB likes to invest in small towns that are growing and dynamic. NIU has been a good boost for Keg & Kernel here, as has the Egyptian Theatre. The theatre emails K&K (and other local restaurants) when they have an event so the establishments can arrange for appropriate staffing.

Heard around the internets

Joe G showed up in a sling. But you should see the other guy (if you can find him!).
